Marlene Yu Museum: The Marlene Yu Museum and Rainforest Art Foundation held its preview party Dec. 19 at the museum's location at 710 Travis St. More than 30 visual artists are on display at the museum. Formerly the YWCA building in downtown Shreveport, the space has been completely remodeled and looks spectacular. Large, oversized artwork have taken residence in what was once the gymnasium, filling the walls, floor to ceiling. Multiple pieces of art filled several other galleries located throughout the facility. The museum is now open to the public.
